

Name	Membership level	What motivated you to put yourself forward for election to the Northern Ireland branch committee?	How much time do you anticipate being able to spend on branch activities in an average week?	What qualities, skills and experience do you think you'll bring to the Northern Ireland branch committee? (maximum 150 words)
Martin Elsner	Associate	I am a current Committee Member and I would like to continue volunteering in this capacity.	4 to 5 hours	I am experienced in all the activities required to perform in the role of a Committee Member. I regularly take part in Committee meetings and organising various events. I am also involved in cooperating with other APM branches through participation in the Volunteer Forums. Also, I actively engage with the project management community in Northern Ireland on the subject of APM Membership.
Leslie Warren	Fellow	Current Committee Member	1-2 HRS WEEK	Past chair long term committee member with corporate experience
Martin Murray	Full	Current Secretary	2hr	Current the NI Branch Secretary.
John Arbuckle	Full	I have been a committee member for over 10 years and served the branch in various ways such as branch treasurer and business link with the NI Chamber of Commerce. I have also been to meetings in England and arranged branch events locally each year. Eg Thales in 2018. I also provide RPP and Exam marking services to the APM and I am a committed to professional development for myself and others.	2 hours minimum per week.	I am an RPP professional and assessor and also provide exam marking services to the APM. I regularly update my skills via my CPD and will be applying for Chartered Membership. I have over 30 years working in the project profession at various levels and sectors and will continue to do so for the immediate future, god willing.
Katherine Hanratty	Full	I am an existing member of the committee and the NICS representative to APM.	1 hour	I am RPP and working towards ChPP. I bring links to NI Civil Service and the public sector.

Colin D. McCarthy	Full	Advancing the profession of Project Management, both locally and nationally. Increase the recognition of APM as the preferred members organisation for project management. Inspiring a new generation to enter the profession by joining APM.	4 hours	I have been a member of the world governing council of the RICS, involved in setting strategy and overseeing its development into a global institution. The knowledge and skills I have obtained over the past 10 years could be applied to the future development of APM. I have also have experience in long-term planning and goal setting. As well as experience in dealing with government and local authorities.
Gerry Coghlan	Full	Wish to continue a long standing involvement	Not enough!	I have been an APM member since 2000 and have been active on the NI Branch Committee for most of that period. I would want to continue to help improve the standing of APM in Northern Ireland and for APM to be the primary Project Management organisation that Project Managers and aspiring Project Managers want to be members of.
