

COLLABORATING TO DELIVER PROJECTS

Keynote Speaker:

Name: Claire Ward

Talk title: Delivering more through collaboration

Description: With the increased adoption of the global standard for collaboration, ISO44001, there are more opportunities for businesses to understand the value that a structured method for building long term and sustainable relationships can bring. In this presentation, Claire will introduce the main elements of ISO44001 and how embedding these principles in your organisation can help to deliver your projects.

Bio: Claire was appointed as the Chief Executive of the ICW in January 2019. She has a background in law, politics and membership organisations bringing a wide network and experience to the role as Chief Executive. She values collaborative working as a key component of successful business relationships and is keen to expand the influence of the Institute to government and public sector.

Claire was a Member of Parliament for Watford from 1997 – 2010 and a Government Minister from 2005 – 2010 experience across several government departments and Whips Office. Claire has extensive experience in membership organisations, predominantly in the pharmacy sector and brings a wide range of experience and connections to the ICW. Claire is also a Non-Executive Director (Vice Chair) of Sherwood Forest Hospitals NHS Foundation Trust 2013 and a Board Governor of the University of Hertfordshire 2018.
