

Hong Kong branch Supporting Statements 2020 – 2021

Name:	What motivated you to put yourself forward for election to the branch committee?	What qualities, skills and experience do you think you'll bring to the branch committee?	If you volunteered last year with the APM what was your best achievement/highlight?
Wilson Wai Pan Lam	I had joined the APM (Hong Kong Branch) Committee for past few years and considered that it would be a good opportunity to humbly contribute or learn from other colleagues as a team in project management.	(A). Project Management About 25 years of project management experiences in Construction, Building and Information Technology Projects. Background as Architect and Authorized Person. HKIA, RIBA, AP(HK), MAPM, PMP, Prince 2 Practitioner, APMG Agile Practitioner (B). Arbitration, Mediation and Dispute Resolution. As arbitrator, adjudicator, mediator and expert witness of various HK and international professional bodies. MCI Arb, FHKI Arb, FAIAC etc. (C). Information Technology, Internet, BIM etc. As Certified CIC-BIM Manager, Certified Big Data Science Professional, Certified Block Chain Architect, CIMP, ITIL Expert etc.	To have a team of APM volunteers working in harmony even though strongly affected by social events and COVID-19. At the end, we still manage to coordinate together as a team under the leadership of the Chairman.
Siu Hong Or	Being a student representative of APM, it is my honest to gain more insight and connect to different construction professionals in the branch committee meetings. I also eager to promote APM to the local universities, as well as the fresh graduates or youngsters who have a construction background.	I am equipped with essential knowledge and skills to come with this post of the branch committee to develop the project and contractual management commissions. It is my desire to develop more advanced cost management, BIM and dispute resolution. I previously worked as an engineer intern provided me with some important skills to work with the professionals in the construction industry. I participated in some stages of construction management, including the testing of building materials and supervision of the building procedures. I was also invited to attend the construction health and safety assembly, as well as meeting contractors.	About the research and academic development of APM in HK

James Pippin Jr	I am interested in promoting Project Management in Hong Kong through membership activities in APM.	30+ years of experience in Project Management with a passion for creating a community of Project Managers.	Participation in webinars and on-line calls with the UK
Josephine Wong	the need to promote Project Management as a professional qualification and raise awareness in the Asian community which is less mature than western communities.	project management, coordination, facilitation skills, network within current working organisation
Tak Yun, Joe Wong	I am self-motivated to join the local committee as I am deeply interested in the well being of it. I have been serving the committee for nearly 20 years since I first joined it, assisting John McEnvoy, who was a Membership Secretary. I have also been an approved APM examination invigilator since I joined the committee. Further, I have served the committee as Treasurer for about four years. After I retired from the HKSARG as a Senior Consultant in 2005, I worked in HK PolyU as a Research Associate. I then worked in a building contractor as a Project Management Adviser for some six years before I joined the Construction Industry Council as a Part-time lecturer till now. I would very much like to share my knowledge and work experience I have gained in the past	I am a fellow member of RICS, and professional members of HKIS and HKICM. By profession, I am a Chartered General Practice Surveyor and a Chartered Project Management Surveyor. I have been working for about 50 years since I first joined the Buildings Ordinance Office, now known as the Buildings Department, HKSARG as a Surveying Assistant (Building) in 1970. I was a management consultant serving a number of departments, including Government Property Agency, for most of my time in the Government. I have extensive experience in consultancy studies and project management in the construction industry. In the contractor firm, I led the Legal and Claims Unit. I am familiar with the legal procedures and skilled in resolving conflicts and managing project risks. Against this background, I am keen to contribute and help build a strong PM profession in Hong Kong.
