

First name:	Surname:	Brief overview of your background and experience in this SIG subject matter: (maximum 150 words)	What motivated you to put yourself forward for election to the APM PMO SIG committee? (maximum 150 words)	What qualities, skills and experience do you think you'll bring to the APM PMO SIG committee? (maximum 150 words)
Ayoola	Adegbite	I have been working in PMO for reputable big organisation for about 10 years, initially as a planning manager then moved on to PMO manager role . Over the years, I have developed extensive knowledge and skills through hands on experience and trainings . I have had key involvement in setting up and running of PMO for organisations.	I will like to utilise my experience, skills and knowledge for the benefit of the project management (PMO) community and promote adoption best practices through the SIG . PMO being the hub of the project and programme management, it's essential that we promote and facilitate proper setting up and running of PMOs through effective targeted SIG activities/ events.	I have extensive experience and skills developed over the years working in the PMO of large reputable company as the PMO manager . I oversees functions include planning, governance, documents control/management, resource management, risk & issue management, finance PO requisition and reporting .Some of my core skills, knowledge and experience include stakeholders engagement, gate governance, project and programme management, supply chain management, budgeting, change management and agile project management methodology (SCRUM,SAFe,DSDM) . These I believe will be beneficial to the SIG committee.
Emma-Ruth	Arnaz-Pemberton	I am a fellow of the APM a P3M3 assessor and have been involved with PMO SIG for 10 years. I have extensive experience in PMO with a focus on collaboration and the people side of	I have been involved for some time and would like to continue the journey to bring PMO forward as an industry	I have been Chair for a number of years and have supported growth in engagement across all social media channels, conferences, and events.

		PPM. I have been involved in publications, awards, and knowledge work for APM and the industry as a whole.
Mike	Belch	I have over 15 years experience of designing, deploying, operating and improving PMOs across a range of industries	I have been a committee member on and off for around five years. I am now semi-retired and therefore have more time to commit to building the community	I enjoy sharing knowledge but also learning from others. I want to see everyone building the best PMOs they can for the organisation they work in and I will support that agenda in any way that I can.
Manish	Chaudhary	Young professional in construction industry with nearly 2 years of experience as Planning Engineer and a PMO. By taking MSc course in University of Limerick, Ireland I am now more knowledgeable about project management. Particularly I have learnt that a PMO is part of a project based organization.	Opportunity to continue learning and networking in a professional body.	Qualities: Participation, Feedback. Skills: Knowledge from peer reviewed journal articles, PMJ, Body of Knowledges. Experience: I have a track record of volunteering activities. I will be receiving UL President's Volunteer Award for AY 2019-2020. I logged 12 approved hours of volunteering in Spring semester.
Steve	Clark	Senior consultant at P2 consulting with a specific focus on PMOs. Company PMO service manager and owner of all PMO IP and thought leadership.	To contribute to the industry specifically relating to PMO and their development and hopefully meet like minded inventive people to drive PMO creativity.	Experience of being part of and running PMOs in both waterfall and agile environments with a healthy critical eye for process improvement and innovation and thinking outside the box to provide an excellent PMO service.
Don	Gaynor	I have 25 years' experience in P3M delivery and project controls. Over the last eight years I've concentrated my efforts on the design, implementation and management of PMOs. Civil Service	I would like to become more actively involved with the APM's community of PMO professionals, to be able to share my own insights on PMO best practice and to collaborate and learn from other	I believe that I can bring the following qualities, skills and experience to the PMO SIG committee: - an understanding and recent experience of the practical

		and consultancy roles I've performed include: - Chief P3M in MOD Armoured Vehicles Programmes PMO; - Head of MOD Defence Logistics Change Management PMO; - Design of a PMO for the UK Nuclear Industries Association; - Design of a PMO for Springfields Fuels Ltd; - Design and Implementation of a PMO for the Foreign and Commonwealth Office (FCO) Estates and Security Directorate.	SMEs. PMO continues to be an exciting and innovative field and I'm passionate about the subject. I want to get involved as a committee member in portraying and championing the benefits that good PMOs can (and do) deliver and I believe that PMO SIG is the best place from which to achieve this. The PMO SIG is one of the most active of the SIGs and, having attended one of the annual conferences, I've decided that this is a SIG that really interests me and where I think I have the most to offer.	challenges of designing and implementing PMOs within UK Government and industry; - good listening, people, comms and stakeholders engagement skills; - a genuine interest in the subject and a passion to share best practice and drive PMO innovations forward; - a good sense of humour.
Allan	King	P3M practitioner for 30 years+. Have worked across government/industry and delivered multi million projects/programmes. More recently, I have implemented a PMO at a major government department, and completed an assessment regarding a Government Sector deal (and how a PMO could assist delivery). I have been a member of the APM for 10 years+.	I hope to share my experience, and gain the views of others. I hope that I can support the SIG in creating, developing, sharing and promoting best practice. I'd like to think I can contribute to the SIG and broader APM. I've managed to be a bystander for some time - and am keen to get more involved.	Broad experience and knowledge. Good combination of theoretical and practical. More importantly, I'm inquisitive and collaborative - keen to support and help the development of others.
Christopher	Mills	I have many years experience in designing, implementing and managing PMOs in the public and private sectors supporting Waterfall/Agile/Hybrid project frameworks. I have been a past committee member for this SIG and presented at regional events and at conferences. I have seen PMOs become an integral part of most organisations	I am very keen to spend more time contributing towards delivery of the outputs identified in the PMO SIG Business Plan for next year including webinars, newsletters and other events.	I am an excellent team player, very approachable and a good listener. I think I am also good at speaking and presenting to audiences, and have good written communication skills. I have helped to organise conferences in the past and make use of social media such as LinkedIn to promote the APM.

		and want to contribute to the future development of this profession by providing though leadership and sharing experiences. I am especially interested in the future of Agile and how PMOs will support the growing number of project management frameworks in use.
Patrick	Scott	I'm currently Head of PMO for the charity YoungMinds, and have over 16 years experience in the not for profit sector, managing complex, high profile programmes and projects and supporting, managing and holding projects to account across an organization through the PMO function. My experience includes managing the recruitment of thousands of London Ambassador volunteers for the 2012 Olympic Games, upskilling the CEOs and leaders of local branches from the charity, Mind, recruiting thousands of new members for the charity the Ramblers through walking festival projects, and in my current role I hold a portfolio of challenging, interesting projects that fight for children and young people's mental health, including work upskilling teachers in schools around their mental health practice and supporting young people directly in facing adversity. My PMO experience	I've enjoyed being a member of the PMO SIG for two years now. I'm keen to give something back to the profession in terms of my knowledge, skills and experience around project management and PMO, I'm equally keen to learn from others and develop my own knowledge; I'm keen to bring a charity perspective to APM and the work of the PMO SIG; and I'm keen to meet and network with fellow PMO professionals and see the PMO world enhanced in general.	I'm hard working, organized, passionate about making a difference through programmes, projects and the PMO function in the charity sector. I have expertise in developing, implementing a PMO organization wide system including various tools that enable projects to be run better; running effective PMO training that engages staff; setting up effective governance and reporting frameworks for projects; amongst many other areas. I'd be keen to continue contributing to the SIG's work, particularly looking at establishing more partnerships between all three sectors, advancing the wellbeing/mental health agenda across different organisations and establishing more employer supported volunteering initiatives to support the charity sector.

		includes developing and implementing an organization wide PMO system, overseeing governance and reporting and actively making interventions on projects.
--	--	--	--	--