

Name	Membership	Reasons for wanting to join the branch committee	What qualities, skills and experience do you think you'll bring to the Yorkshire and North Lincolnshire branch committee?
Mark Laurillard	Full	Existing member, wishing to continue serving	As previously noted
Andrew Fortherby	Full	I have served on the Committee for a year already and have been inspired by the good work and plans for the forthcoming year. I want to continue to contribute to the development of the Project Management profession at this particularly exciting time, and make sure that the Yorkshire and North Lincs branch has a strong voice in the future of APM	I am the Director of WYG's Major Programmes Practice, and oversee the strategy, planning, and delivery of more than £1.5bn capital investment in major projects and infrastructure in the UK and overseas. I bring this practical and commercial experience to the committee, and add experience from outside the Region to provide linkage to the approach to project management across the UK and overseas.
Jo Stanford	Full	I have been a YNL committee member for a few years now and feel it is important to support the development and growth of the profession in this region.	As a project professional i bring knowledge and experience. I bring contacts and membership potential through my health sector role and I bring enthusiasm and passion for developing project delivery capability.
Muhammad Naeem	Full	Working in some large organisations in JV's, extensive networking across many businesses in this region, I believe this is the right time to to join APM committee, in order to bring all stakeholders on a joint platform including professionals, academia, organisations. This will help APM to extend its activities and providing support to PM professionals across wider audience.	I am a practicing senior PM and MD of a consultancy business advising on International business and PM a no. of energy and utilities across the region. Enthusiasm,extensive networking with universities, companies and professionals,PM experience Commitment to improving what the APM does at a local level. I have a strong passion for PM and what it can do for projects of all sorts. The qualities that I can bring to bear on the committee are those which are inherent within us all as project managers – I am resilient, co-operative, collaborative, results orientated. I have served as a Chair for the Joint Institution Group, where we had 7 engg. institutions on a single platform, supporting and engaging students and businesses for the STEM.
Kevin Parry	Fellow	A desire to be involved in promoting professionalism in the community and helping newer members.	Years of experience on this and the HK committee

Hilary Pattison	Full	I am an existing committee member. I continue to be interested in promoting the professionalism of the profession with the region.	I have served on the committee since 2014 and as Corporate Liaison Rep since 2016. I have been an active member of the committee and I bring both enthusiasm, a significant level of experience as a project and programme manager and a strong belief in the work of the APM.
Kenneth Platts	Full	Past membership and participation in Y&NL Branch activities.	Experience as Committee member
James Pearson	Associate	I have thoroughly enjoyed representing the branch over the past two years and look forward to contributing further.	I would like to contribute my work experience of being a Project Manager and my continuous knowledge gained from my MSc in strategic project management to the branch. I would also like to further the commitment of my time to the branch with the planning of events and extend my focus on the seminar write ups.
David Pearce	Full	Current member who enjoys the role and wishes to continue.	Experienced committee member and secretary. Also good contacts with industry and academia..
David Burton	Full	I have served on the Y&NL Committee for a number of years and believe my experience as both a project manager and volunteer with the APM will add value to the local branch membership.	I have the leadership skills to be able to drive the committee in the direction that I believe members require.
