

APM North West branch committee nomination

2017/18

Name	Membership	Reasons for wanting to join the branch committee	What qualities, skills and experience do you think you'll bring to the North West branch committee?	AOB
Masoud Gaffarian Asl	Full	I have been a member of committee for the past 4 years and I had the opportunity to be part of a group of highly passionate and experienced professionals from diverse backgrounds and contribute towards APM's strategies and meet some inspirational project managers. And I would like to continue on this journey to help further with the branch committee and their plans during the next year.	I have experience of working in construction and housing industry for 15 years as well as starting and managing my personal property development business. During the last 4 years of my involvement with branch I was responsible for newsletter, booklet and communication and would like to continue contributing to the same tasks as well as being involved in other further activities of the branch.
Claire Pallett	Full	I have been a committee member for the past year and have enjoyed assisting with APM in events. I have also found this personally rewarding and an opportunity for networking.	To provide a local connection between my employers and the APM, as well as networking skills to aid communication between the APM, its members and corporate members.
Peter Anthony Rufus Gardiner	Full	I feel we all need to contribute to the organisation and I have thoroughly enjoyed all the time I have spent on the committee.	Former Branch Chairman, Ex Director of a number of Project Management consultancies. RPP assessor
Michael Scully	Full	To further the practical work, the branch is undertaking in the North West of England, to promote and advance the profession of Project Management. Also to further improve my own skills, knowledge and understanding.	I work as a Project Director, with 30+ yearsâ€™ involvement in the construction and project delivery. And, over the last 15 yearsâ€™ experience in, substantive project management leadership roles, in complex multi-disciplinary project environments. Having delivered major projects, across multiple sectors.	Possible update to the floor, on where the process around changes to RPP and, creation of ChPP stands at present.
Therese Lawlor-Wright	Full	Previous Experience on the committee.	Education experience, event organisation experience.
Susan Clarke	Full	I am keen to continue to support the region in influencing standards, education provision and improve professionalism across IT.	Willingness to undertake research and shared learning, IT PM context, persistence....
Andrew Wright	Fellow	Currently Co-opted.	Very experienced at making things happen, Academic and industrial background and contacts.
Phil Hardy	Full	To use my project management experience to put something back into the profession. Promote the profession as a distinct career choice to students and others still in formal education.	Chair for the past 4 years. Proposing to step down as chair but maintain an interest in encouraging 16 - 25 year olds into the PM profession.
Richard Preston	Fellow	Current committee member	Hon FAPM
Stewart Wragg	Fellow	to be able to help other PMs develop and deliver great projects in the UK	22 years of experience in delivering projects and programmes of work.
Kevin Kane	Full	To do something for the profession	An educators perspective
Graham Woodward	Fellow	Active within the Branch for over 15 years already	As above with added past and current responsibilities nationally with in the APM and also with the IPMA
Kathryn Jones	Full	I am keen to support my professional body and influence and shape how we engage with APM members within the North West.	I have previously been a member of the IMechE North East committee for 4 years. I bring a enthusiastic, organised approach which I would apply to any tasks that I take on as a committee member to ensure a successful outcomes. I have also been working as a Project Manager within the Nuclear Sector in the North West for a number of years and have built a network of contacts which I can draw upon in the promotion of APM activities and developments
