

Programme Management SIG (ProgM)

AGM 2017

Programme Management SIG

www.apm.org.uk/progm

THE CHARTERED BODY FOR THE PROJECT PROFESSION

ProgM 2016-17 Report

Dr. Ed Wallington – Chair of ProgM SIG

@apmprogmsig

Programme Management SIG (ProgM)

- Vision: To be recognised internationally as the leading group for programme management, supporting a world in which all projects succeed.

- Workstreams:
  - Physical Events
  - Virtual Events
  - Communications
  - Higher Education
  - Publications
  - Corporate

W: www.apm.org.uk/progm
Twitter: @apmprogmsig

ProgM 2016-17 Review

Publications

Major publication of Introduction to Programme
Management
(Second Edition)

Introduction to Programme Management (Second Edition)

“This update to APM Introduction to Programme Management brings new insights as to what programme management is all about. It is an ‘easy read’ for the top executives, for those relatively new to programme management who have a thirst for knowledge and for the project management community who should, and need to, understand how their project management skills play into the ‘bigger picture’.”

Sir John Armitt

This substantial refresh of APM Introduction to Programme Management brings practitioners up-to-date with the latest developments in the discipline.

As well as the fundamental principles – what a programme is, how it works and how to review progress – the guide also explores the changing environment in which programmes exist, their relationship to the strategic context of organisations as well as ‘new’ frameworks and ways of working.

APM Introduction to Programme Management 2nd edition is one of APM’s core introductory texts. Written by experienced practitioners from APM’s Programme Management Specific Interest Group (SIG), it is recommended reading for anyone joining a programme team – or those who want to know how to interact with the programme.

Events

- Conferences
  - APM Programme Management Conference – 2nd March 2017, Derby. See following slides.
- Evening events
  - How to effectively generate confidence in programme delivery (Iain Minns and Richard Croxson), and AGM – 23rd June 2016, London.
  - Introduction to Programme Management (Chris Yewdall and Ed Wallington) – 23rd Jan 2017, Yorkshire & North Lincolnshire Branch, York
  - Introduction to Programme Management launch event (Alan Macklin and Ed Wallington), Keynote: After the Inspiration – the Perspiration! By Roy Hill - 2nd Feb 2017, Midlands Branch, Birmingham.
- Webinars
  - Programme Management in the ICT Sector, Prof. Dr. Silke Schnert - 7th June 2016.
  - Programme Management in the transport sector - a TfL case study Webinar, Arnab Banerjee - 19th July 2016.
  - Introduction to Programme Management – Alan Macklin, 14th Feb 2017.

APM Programme Management Conference 2017

In our increasingly connected, globalised and digital world, the need for collaboration to deliver
project and programme
success is growing.

2nd March 2017, Derby

APM Programme Management Conference 2017 - Speakers

APM Programme Management Conference 2017 - Speakers

- Tom Taylor, Dashdot, and vice President APM
- Darren Colderwood, Delivery Director- T2, T3, T4 & T5 Projects, Heathrow Airport Ltd
- Benedict Pinches, Managing Director, Oxford Major Programmes
- Adrian Ellis, Director, Next Generation Submarines, Rolls-Royce
- Alasdair G Stirling CBE, Head of Future Submarines, Ministry of Defence (MoD)
- Russell Goodenough, Client Managing Director, Transport Sector: Fujitsu UK
- Simon D'Cruz, Head of Projects and Systems, Stanway Consulting
- Tony Calthorpe, Senior Consultant, The Nichols Group
- Femi Fadipe, Technical Director (International), Project & Commercial Services, WSP|Parsons Brinckerhoff
- Adrian Furner, IACCM Fellow & Managing Director, Kommercialize
- Sarah Coleman FAPM CMgr FCMI, Director, Business Evolution
- Christopher Young, Director, Programmes, Civil Aerospace, Rolls-Royce
- Penny Pullan, Director, Making Projects Work (UK)
- Mark Prockter, Director of Programme Management, Rolls-Royce

Thank you to our sponsors and supporters

Sponsored by:

Rolls-Royce

Exhibitors:

Wellington
PROJECT MANAGEMENT

 TrainingByteSize

Supported by:

PROMS-G
Project Management
Specialist Group

ProgM 2017-18 Preview

2017-18 Preview

- Activity per workstream
- Blogs – ongoing series of blogs from Committee members and other collaborators, one a month.
- Social Media
  - Our Communication workstream has been utilising a range of social media platforms, incl. Twitter, LinkedIn, Facebook, etc, and increasingly exploring use of short video content, e.g. for interviews.
- Evolving collaborations
  - RICS and BCS – ongoing regular discussions and plans for collaborative working. E.g. both supported at ProgM Conf and webinar plans.
  - Working more closely and collaboratively with other SIG's

2017-18 Preview

- Education workstream – enhanced engagement with higher education organisations, branches, etc
- Corporate workstream – enhanced engagement with the Corporate Partners
- Publication workstream - Thought Leadership papers and short discussion papers
- Events – 1 all day Programme Management Conference, 2 webinars, support other events, e.g. Branches as requested