Gina Parkin	Full	I work as an Interim Programme Manager for my own company 'The Project Professional'. I am currently contracted to the Yorkshire Building Society but have worked for most sectors throughout my career. I have managed the PMO when I worked for the civil service and managing change at a portfolio level and drilling this down throughout the portfolio is something that I feel very passionate about.	My colleague Lynne Ratcliffe is a member of the committee and I have been very interested in joining for some time. I enjoy the academic side of the Project Community and have attended the APM events previously. Myself and Lynne were both confident that I could make a significant contribution on the SIG.	I have over 13 years experience as a Project and Programme Manager. I am APM, PRINCE2 and MSP qualified with an MSc in Project Management. I take an very keen interest in best practice and have worked alongside well respected companies and individuals to design and implement best practice in companies. I am well liked, hardworking and try to bring a burst of colour into everything I do.	5 hours per week or more if necessary.
Richard Moor	Fellow	Currently Head of Portfolio for Royal Mail Letters and Network, have been a Portfolio Manager for the past 2 years.	Made a presentation to the SIG Conference and approached by committee member. Won APM Project Management Company of the Year. I feel my experiences may be able to help the SIG move forward, if I can help the industry grow it helps my firm too.	I am not a theorist I am a practitioner of Portfolio Management in practice. I will bring a sense of reality to what is actually happening on the ground. I have good contacts with other industry and I am happy to share that learning with the SIG. I personally am patient, am open to new ideas and to test them in my environment. I am a strong advocate of personal development and the need to grow our Portfolio Management community professional competence is a core ambition of mine.	As required - however as previously advised I will be on adoption leave for 3 months during the year and will need to undertake less activity in that time.

Stephen Parrett	Full	Most of my professional life has been in the financial services industry, moving from retail banking into change management in the 1990s, initially in project management and then in the arena of portfolio management, mainly at the corporate level. This involved developing and managing a range of different portfolio operating models (e.g., IT-only, IT/business at divisional level and then org-level IT/business), together with reporting to executive-level portfolio committees. In the mid-2000s, I became an independent consultant specialising in portfolio management, benefits management, and business case development, working in a range of private and public sector organisations.	With over 20 years of portfolio management (PfM) experience, I joined the PfM SIG Committee in 2010 to contribute to the further development of the subject through passing on my own knowledge and experiences. Being involved with a group of like-minded people enables me to help develop fresh insights to support development of PfM for the wider community of PfM professionals. I am keen to extend relationships with other SIGs, improve the links to members and work with the APM centre in order to promote PfM. I see a particular need to find ways of reaching the senior executive level.	I bring my many years in the portfolio management profession and experience of steering PfM development through various organisational cultures, structures and committees etc. I have good organisational skills, patience, perseverance, adaptability and experience of a variety of change management environments. Experience of how the APM works through having been on the Portfolio Management SIG committee since its formation in 2010, being the Chair from 2012/13 to 2016/17.	About 5 hours
Steve Leary	Full	Over 25 years experience of strategic business and IT change through portfolio, programme and project management. I have managed major portfolios and programmes of over 100 onshore and offshore staff for organisations in a variety of sectors. In addition I am a Chartered Engineer, member of the Institution of Engineering and Technology, the Chartered Management Institute and have been a member of the portfolio SIG committee for 4 years.	Continuing professional interest and involvement in developing the discipline. Wanting to contribute to the development of portfolio management and to understand and implement 'good/best practice' in client organisations.	Practical and theoretical experience and expertise and an understanding of some of the challenges we face in implementing portfolio management.	About 1 to 2 days per month.

Paul Mogan	Associate	I have been responsible for managing a regional IS portfolio of around $20m for the last two years at a FTSE 20 international company. Before my current position I have progressed through the same portfolio management function from being a Portfolio Planner to a Portfolio Manager. During these 4 years I have played a key role in continuously shaping the IS portfolio function to its current state, by introducing a simple and flexible Europe wide portfolio management process and enabling governance mechanisms that gained the support of the Europe CIO, CFO, IS leadership and IS stakeholders alike. Previous to Portfolio Management, I have served the public sector as a project manager leading major IT projects (the latest with a £1.7million budget) for Transport for London. I delivered these projects on time, quality and cost - something quite rare. I am Prince2, MSP and MoP practitioner qualified.	I have volunteered my services to the Portfolio Management SIG on two occasions, firstly to support a knowledge research analysis workstream and secondly to present at the recent yearly SIG conference. I have been very impressed by the calibre of individuals on the committee and also the enthusiasm and teamwork on display during my various interactions with members. I am keen further broaden my knowledge and experience within the Portfolio Management discipline to better myself professionally and enhance my future job prospects. I believe joining the Portfolio Management SIG committee will act as a catalyst for me to do this.	Some of my strengths include passion, enthusiasm and collaboration, I would like to bring these to the committee, its members and affiliates. I am happy to take the lead on events or tasks, I am highly organised and will collaborate with excellent communication skills. With the recent presentation I gave at the last Portfolio Management SIG conference, I can continue to provide access to a global portfolio management approach. Leveraging support and best practice used by my companys virtual Portfolio Management team in other continents such as Latin America and South Africa. I also regularly attend industry conferences such as the Gartner PPM conference to keep up to date with the latest thinking in the Portfolio Management discipline. I am ready and willing to provide constructive ideas into the committee and have the time and dedication to support agreed change become a reality.	1-2 hours per week
