

Trailblazer apprenticeship FAQs

- What is different about Trailblazers? Trailblazers are Apprenticeship standards designed by employers for a specific job role.
- Where are Trailblazer apprenticeships available? Trailblazers are currently available in England.
- Who can take a Trailblazer apprenticeship standard? You need to be 16 or over and living and working in England.
- What is a Trailblazer group? It is a partnership of employers who develop an apprenticeship standard.
- Who provides Trailblazer apprenticeships? Employers provide trailblazer apprenticeships.
- Who provides the training on Trailblazer apprenticeships? Training is provided by employers and training providers, including colleges and universities.
- How is a Trailblazer apprenticeship assessed? It is assessed in an end point assessment.
- What does the Trailblazer apprenticeship end point assessment cover? An apprentice is assessed on knowledge, skills and behaviours required for the job role.
- Who can provide Trailblazer apprenticeship training? All Apprenticeship training providers need to be registered on the Register of Training Providers (RoATP).
- What is a Degree Trailblazer standard? It is an Apprenticeship which includes a degree qualification.
- Do Trailblazer apprenticeship standards include professional qualifications? Yes many do include professional qualifications, e.g. the Associate Project Manager includes the APM PMQ.