

First name:	Surname:	Brief overview of your background and experience in this SIG subject matter: (maximum 150 words)	What motivated you to put yourself forward for election to the APM Knowledge SIG committee? (maximum 150 words)	What qualities, skills and experience do you think you'll bring to the APM Knowledge SIG committee? (maximum 150 words)
Joelle	Garden	Proponent of bringing knowledge management practices into project management working practices, mostly within aerospace engineering industry. Current member of Knowledge SIG committee.	I retain a strong interest in management of knowledge in projects and organisations, enjoy being part of a community of KM enthusiasts, and have a few ideas in the pipeline for content creation as part of the SIG committee.	Industry experience as a practitioner, in both agile and waterfall, hardware and software environments. Interest in building better understanding of KM subjects in the general public as well as project professionals.
David	Pearce	I have been undertaking research into KM for almost 15 years and have been a KM practitioner for over 10 years. I am working towards my KM charter ship with CILIP.	I am currently the chair of the Knowledge SIG and would like to continue the work I am involved with.	I have a good balance of practical and academic knowledge of the subject area. I also have many years' experience of leading volunteer groups within industry groups, including the Construction Industry Council.
Steve	Simister	I have been involved in project management for over 35 years. I have worked in a variety of roles as a project manager and consultant within the construction, education and pharmaceutical industries. I am a Chartered Project Professional (ChPP) and the co-author of a knowledge management book published in 2019.	I have been involved with the KSIG since its inception. As a SIG committee member I want to support how the project management community can engage with the knowledge community to tap into their broader experience and expertise. I see it as beneficial that we have a diverse but complementary range of skill sets on the committee. My experience is more project related but through involvement with the KSIG committee I have learned an enormous	I have been an APM member for over 30 years. In that time I have been chair of the Contracts & Procurement SIG, founding member of the SIG Steering Group, contributing author for APM's PRAM guide; APM Body of Knowledge 5th and 6th editions, the APM representative on BSI and ISO standards committees and am an RPP. Hence, I have a deep insight into the workings of APM and as amount about knowledge management and have shared my project management insight with others.	somebody who works with a range of organisations I am aware of the diverse range of needs within the project management community.

David	Williams	Am the President of the Australian Society for Knowledge Management On the committee of the Knowledge Management Global Network Certified Knowledge Manager - International Knowledge Management Institute 2005 Have published several peer-reviewed articles on KM Designed and delivered post graduate courses in KM	Am interested in the field	David's early background is in project management in the construction industry on large projects such as Loy Yang power station, the Submarine construction facility, Bruce Stadium & the New Parliament House. He spent 15 years on Major Capital Projects in Defence and is now the Senior Adviser, Business Systems Delivery within an Australian Government agency. David has a Diploma in engineering, a Master's degree in Project Management and is currently pursuing a PhD in sociology. He is a Certified Practicing Project Director and a Chartered Project Professional. David lectures at the ANU in Project Management and is the 2019 ACT Australian of Year - Local Hero.