APM Fellowship (FAPM)

I understand that to meet the requirements for APM Fellowship (FAPM) designation, applicants must:

- Have held Full membership of APM for at least 5 years and have a minimum of five years' additional project delivery experience or have a minimum of 10 years' project delivery experience.

- Provide two statements of support confirming, to the best of their knowledge, the individual's contribution to the project management profession

- Confirm their commitment to professionalism through agreeing to abide by APM's Code of Professional Conduct apm.org.uk/codeofconduct.

The applicant must be able to demonstrate that they have made a significant personal, ongoing contribution to the project management profession by meeting at least one of the following criteria:

- Recognition: Achieving national/international recognition for advancing the knowledge and understanding of project management. Examples of this include:
  - Publications
  - Original research
  - Public lectures

- Contribution to others in the profession: Actively engaging in developing, supporting and encouraging members of the profession, sharing good practice and increasing competence of others. This needs to be over and above what is expected in a defined job role. Examples of this include:
  - Coaching
  - Mentoring
  - Leading networking and good practice sessions

- Shaping the profession: Actively engaging in developing the profession through delivering new and creative solutions to issues in project management or influencing and developing project management standards and practices. Examples of this include:
  - Significant contribution in a voluntary role to the development of national or international project management standards
  - Innovative project management practice that has led to successful delivery.

I can confirm that to the best of my knowledge _____ meets these requirements and I can therefore support their application for Fellowship of the APM.
