

Diane Stanley

Diane Stanley BSc, PgCAP, FHEA is the Programme Lead for the Project Management Degree Apprenticeship (PMDA) at the University of Plymouth. Prior to moving into an academic role Diane worked for over 12 years as a Senior Project Manager at the University delivering key strategic projects. In addition to this Diane has extensive experience of working as a project manager delivering large scale change management projects in the private and public sector.